Notice to California Residents: Regardless of your marital status, you may apply for credit in your name alone.

Notice to New York Residents: Consumer reports may be requested in connection with the processing of your application and any resulting account. Upon request, we will inform you of the names and addresses of any consumer reporting agencies which have provided us with such reports.

Notice to Ohio Residents: Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

Notice to Rhode Island Residents: Consumer reports may be requested in connection with this application.

Notice to Maine Residents: Consumer (credit) reports may be requested in connection with this application. Upon request, you will be informed whether or not a consumer report was requested and, if it was, of the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished it.

Notice to Vermont Residents: The creditor may obtain credit reports about you on an ongoing basis in connection with this extension of credit transaction for any one or more of the followi reasons: (1) reviewing the account; (2) taking collection action on the account; or (3) any other legitimate purposes associated with the account.

Notice to Married Wisconsin Residents: No provision of marital property agreement, a unilateral statement under Wisconsin Statutes 766.59 or a court decree under Wisconsin Statutes 766.70 adversely affects the interest of the creditor unless the creditor, prior to the time credit is granted, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligatio to the creditor is incurred.
